

Indiana's Common Construction Wage Law: Creating Local Job Opportunities and Fueling Indiana's Economy

THE COMMON CONSTRUCTION WAGE LAW KEEPS JOBS LOCAL

0%

ADDITIONAL COSTS TO TAXPAYERS AS A RESULT OF COMMON
CONSTRUCTION WAGE

90.5%

INDIANA CONTRACTOR
MARKET SHARE UNDER
COMMON CONSTRUCTION
WAGE LAW

In states where Common Construction Wage Law is in place, local contractors have greater market share, employ more local workers and contribute more to the local economy.

LOCAL WAGES, LOCAL WORKERS, STRONG COMMUNITIES

THE COMMON CONSTRUCTION WAGE BOOSTS THE INDIANA ECONOMY BY MORE THAN $700 MILLION ANNUALLY

$21 M in Total State & Local Tax Revenue to Indiana

2,000
Non-Construction
Jobs in Indiana

COMMON CONSTRUCTION
WAGE SUPPORTS

$66 M in Federal Tax Revenue

$250 M in total worker income in Indiana

THE COMMON CONSTRUCTION WAGE PRODUCES
HIGHLY SKILLED, HIGHLY PRODUCTIVE WORKFORCE
AND DEVELOPS AND RETAINS TALENT

2X

Nearly 2X as many Construction Apprentices in Indiana as States where Common Construction Wage is not in place.

14%

States with Common Construction Wage Laws show overall value added per worker as 14% higher than states without Common Construction Wage in place.

DID YOU KNOW?: Apprenticeship training is tuition free. Once the program is completed and the student passes all coursework, he or she will have earned an Associates Degree and the technical skills necessary to be recognized as a master craft professional.

COMMON CONSTRUCTION WAGE FOSTERS SAFER
WORKPLACES FOR INDIANA CONSTRUCTION WORKERS

www.commonconstructionwage.org